

WILLS FOR FIRST RESPONDERS

DISCLAIMER

The Wills For First Responders program is available through The Law Offices of Paul R. Poulsen. The program is available to First Responders and their spouse/domestic partner. The program provides simple Wills and Health Care Directives to eligible members of the First Responder community.

The documents and information that will be provided by the program are designed for small or modest estates and the information and advice provided by The Law Offices of Paul R. Poulsen is general in nature. The wills being prepared are simple wills and not extensive estate planning documents. Your individual estate planning needs and the laws which impact estate planning in the State of Utah may change, so you should review them regular. It is your responsibility to make sure that your documents are reviewed. Large estates or additional more extensive estate planning matter should be handled directly through The Law Offices of Paul R. Poulsen and not through the Wills For First Responders program.

The Wills For First Responders program will not provide any legal advice in the following areas of law: (1) estate, gift, income and/or generation skipping transfer taxation; (2) trust planning; (3) citizenship or domicile issues; (4) assets held outside of the United States; (6) any other issue that is deemed to be outside of the Wills For First Responders program. Should questions arise that are deemed to be outside of the Wills For First Responders program, separate consultations with Attorney Paul R. Poulsen will be required.

All information will be kept confidential and is for the sole use of the Wills For First Responders program. During your scheduled Wills For First Responders appointment you will meet with Attorney Paul R. Poulsen for the sole purpose of drafting and providing these simple estate planning documents. In addition, no attorney-client or other professional relationship of any nature whatsoever will be deemed to have been created by your participation in the Wills For First Responders program.

Attorney Paul R. Poulsen has numerous existing and prospective client relationships and it is possible that a situation could arise in which your interests might conflict with those of some other client. Attorney Paul R. Poulsen will be preparing your documents for you with the understanding and agreement that he may represent any other present or future client in any matter that is not substantially related to his work for you, even if such client's interest are directly adverse to your interests.

_____ I understand and agree that, to the extent that any attorney-client relationship may have formed, it ends once my estate planning documents are signed and witnessed.
